

Unit 1

Audio 1.1 What matters to me

I = Interviewer A = Aksel

I What objects do you always carry with you?

A My Copenhagen card – that's a travel card, a photo of my son and my phone, of course.

I How much time do you spend writing every day?

A It depends ... sometimes I spend all day just researching, other times I write all day and night – that's exhausting.

I Whose writing has influenced you the most?

A Stieg Larsson's, the Swedish writer, without a doubt. Especially his The Girl with the Dragon tattoo. He was a genius.

I Who do you live with?

A My wife and son. We have a small family house in Elsinore – you know, Hamlet's Elsinore!

I What kind of holiday do you like?

A My son and I go to a fishing lodge on Fyn Island every summer. I love fishing - I find it really relaxing.

I How many houses have you lived in?

A This is my first house. I've always lived in apartments, two in fact – one in Copenhagen, one here in Elsinore.

I How often do you travel abroad?

A Four or five times a year – always work. I've done author tours from Brazil to Bulgaria. I find it exciting but very stressful.

I What are you like in the morning?

A Dreadful! I'm not an early-morning type of person – especially if I've been writing all night.

I Who are you like in your family?

A I look like my mother, and I have my father's bad temper. It's an unfortunate combination.

I Which university did you go to?

A I didn't. I studied acting at the Commedia School in Copenhagen. I was useless, I got just a few small parts on TV.

I What are you afraid of?

A That anything bad might happen to my wife or son.

I How long did it take you to write your first novel, Crime City?

A Kriminalitet City – I first had the idea when I was fifteen and I finally finished writing it when I was 35!

Audio 1.2 Phrasal verbs

Journeys

A You're arriving in London next Monday, right?

B Yes, that's right.

A I'll pick you up if you like?

B That would be lovely.

A What time does your train get in?

B Hang on! I'll just check on the ticket. Er ... 17.45.

A OK. The traffic's bad at that time, but if I set off at about 5, I'll be there in plenty of time.

Relationships

A Did you hear that Sam and Dee have split up?

B Really? They've been going out together for years! What went wrong?

A Sam said all they did was argue, and he couldn't put up with it anymore. Dee is very upset, apparently.

B I'm sure she is, but she'll get over it. He wasn't that great!

Starting a business

A Jim and I are going to set up our own business.

B Wow! What are you thinking of doing?

A Well, I've always liked cooking, and Jim came up with the idea of opening a restaurant.

B Have you found a place yet?

A We're looking. We've worked out that we can afford about £25,000 a year rent. We're saving like crazy. We've cut back our spending on going out and clothes and stuff like that.

B Well, good luck. I'll be your first customer.

Workbook Audioscript

Moving house

- A I hear you've just moved house. How are you settling in?
- B Not bad. It's all a bit chaotic, so it's hard to get down to any work.
- A And the kids?
- B Well, we moved to the country because we didn't want to bring them up in a town. They're finding it a bit difficult at the moment. They've left their friends behind.
- A I'm sure it will all work out. Give it time.

Audio 2.3 Tina's Travels

B = Beth T = Tina

B Hi, Tina. I haven't seen you for ages. Have you been away?

T Yes, I have. I was in South America for four months.

B Wow! Did you have a good time?

T Yes, I did. It was amazing.

B Were you travelling around?

T No, I wasn't. Well, not for most of the time. I stayed in Buenos Aires for three months.

B Oh yes, haven't you got an aunt and uncle who live there?

T Yes, I have. I stayed with them for a couple of weeks, and then I got a place of my own.

B Did you rent a room somewhere?

T No, I didn't. I found a really nice apartment on Airbnb, and I had it all to myself.

B What did you think of the Argentinians? They're very friendly, aren't they?

T Yes, they are. Very outgoing, with a good sense of humour.

B They eat a lot of meat, don't they?

T Yes, they do. They have these amazing barbecues, called asados, with tons of meat.

B I guess it's always good weather for barbecues there.

T Well, no it isn't, actually. It can get quite cold in June. That's when I went to Brazil.

B Oh! A different language there, but you've been learning Portuguese, haven't you?

T Yes, I have, but not for long enough. I found it much easier speaking Spanish in Argentina. Anyway, what about you? Are you doing OK?

B No, I'm not, really. Still fed up with the job. But I was saying that when I last saw you, so I really must do something about it.

Audio 2.4 Everyday situations

1 A I've got a cold. It's a...a...aatchoo!

B Bless you!

2 A The taxi's here – it's waiting outside.

B OK, let's go!

3 A You can keep that umbrella if you like.

B Are you sure? Thanks!

4 A Good luck in the exam!

B Same to you!

5 A Do you need any help?

B No thanks, I'm just looking.

6 A I'm going on holiday to Barbados tomorrow.

Unit 3

Audio 3.1 Welcome Eva!

M = Eva A = Anna

A Hello, Eva it's lovely to meet you at last.

M Hello.

A Did you have a good journey?

M It was OK.

A That's good. Would you like to see your room and freshen up a bit?

M Yes, I would.

A That's fine. I'll take your bags upstairs and show you the bathroom.

M Thank you.

A Just follow me. Kate is really looking forward to meeting you – she'll be back from school about 4 o'clock.

M That's nice.

A How old's your sister?

M 13.

A Ah - just like Kate! Do you get on well with your sister?

M Sometimes.

Workbook Audioscript

- A Here's your room. I hope you like it.
M I do.
A That's good. We want to hear all about your home and family. Now, unpack your things, have a shower and come down when you're ready.
M Thank you.

Audio 3.2 Welcome Eva!

- M = Eva A = Anna
A Hello, Eva it's lovely to meet you at last.
M Hello. Nice to meet you too.
A Did you have a good journey?
M It was OK. I managed to sleep for a few hours on the plane.
A That's good. Would you like to see your room and freshen up a bit?
M Yes, I would. I'd love to have a shower if that's OK.
A That's fine. I'll take your bags upstairs and show you the bathroom.
M Thank you. You're very kind, but I can carry them myself. Now where do I go?
A Just follow me. Kate is really looking forward to meeting you – she'll be back from school about 4 o'clock.
M That's nice. I can't wait to meet her. I have a younger sister – I think she's the same age as Kate.
A How old's your sister?
M 13. She looks and acts as if she's 16 though!
A Ah - just like Kate! Do you get on well with your sister?
M Sometimes. But I think she's a bit spoilt. I get on better with my brother – he's 11.
A Here's your room. I hope you like it.
M I do. It's lovely. It looks like my room back home in Slovakia – I won't feel homesick at all.
A That's good. We want to hear all about your home and family. Now, unpack your things, have a shower and come down when you're ready.
M Thank you. You've made me feel very welcome. I'm sure I'll be very happy here.

Audio 4.2 Past Simple or Past Perfect? Hot chocolate or champagne?

It was ten o'clock in the evening. Nancy sat down on her sofa and thought about the day. What a busy day it had been. This was her first night in her very own flat. She had lived her entire life so far, 23 years, in the family home with her parents, and now for the first time, she was on her own.

She sat surrounded by all the boxes that she hadn't managed to unpack during the day. It had taken months to get all her belongings together and her mum and dad had been very generous, buying her things like towels and mugs.

She suddenly felt exhausted, she yawned. No wonder she was tired! She had been packing and unpacking since six o'clock in the morning. She decided to make a mug of hot chocolate and go to bed. She knew she had packed the mugs somewhere but she couldn't remember where.

There was a knock at her door. There stood a neighbour holding a bunch of flowers and a bottle of champagne. He had come to welcome her to their apartment block. Nancy was suddenly awake!

Workbook Audioscript

Champagne won over hot chocolate every time. Her neighbour smiled at her. He looked like a really nice guy.

Audio 4.3 Bedtime stories

H = Henry B = Bob

H I love being a dad, don't you?

B Yeah, of course I do – most of the time.

H My favourite thing is bedtime.

B Ah, I totally agree! It's the best time of day. Peace at last!

H No, it's not just that. I really enjoy reading bedtime stories to my kids.

B Do you? My kids are a bit old for that now, but I used to read to them a lot. What are your kids' favourites?

H Well, Emma thinks anything by Roald Dahl is great.

B He's an excellent writer for kids, isn't he?

H Yes, he is. He's absolutely brilliant! My kids love Charlie and the Chocolate factory and The BFG – The Big Friendly Giant – it's pretty scary in places but they like being scared.

B Yeah, I think most kids like scary bits. I know mine did. Dahl wrote for adults too, didn't he?

H He certainly did – he wrote books of short stories. I read them years ago – real page-turners.

B Yes, I remember – aren't they kind of scary too – dark but funny?

H You're absolutely right, and they all have really unexpected endings – Tales of the Unexpected is one of Dahl's books.

B What are you reading to your kids at the moment then?

H Actually, it's not a Dahl, it's a fairy story – a scary fairy story! Beauty and the Beast – you can't beat a good fairy story.

B Too true! There's nothing better than a story that begins 'Once upon a time ...'.

Unit 5

Unit 7

Audio 7.1 My first job

A = Alastair B = Becky

- A I'm thinking of applying for a job in East Africa, in Tanzania.
- B Really? I lived there for two years – I was teaching. It was my first job after university.
- A Yes, I thought so. I want to ask you about it, if that's OK.
- B Of course - go ahead. I'll try to remember it all. I was there for two years, but that was ten years ago.
- A So, what was it like?
- B Well, it was a great experience. I really would encourage you to apply. I liked everything except the climate. I didn't enjoy working in the heat.
- A Ah, yes I'm a bit worried about that. Was it really difficult to keep cool?
- B Well, yes it was. And we were on the coast, north of Dar es Salaam and it's really hot and humid there. There was no air conditioning, we just had fans in the classrooms. Where do you hope to be based?
- A A town called Arusha.
- B Oh, very nice. That's much cooler, inland, near Mt. Kilimanjaro. Some friends invited us to stay in Arusha. I'll never forget climbing Kilimanjaro.
- A Oh, I'd love to do that. Did you manage to go on safari when you were there?
- B Oh yes, we went to most of the big game parks – you know, like Serengeti and the Ngorongoro Crater – that was so huge it made me feel small and the wildlife was fantastic. Once, on Serengeti, a whole family of monkeys decided to play on the roof of our car. We didn't dare move.
- A Which animals did you like best?
- B Actually, I think it was the giraffes, I loved watching the way they raise their long necks to eat. Oh, and the lions, of course. Do you know that in one of the parks the lions actually climb trees? It was incredible to see them sleeping high up on the branches.

- A Really? It all sounds so exciting. I'm definitely going to apply for the job.
- B Give me a call and let me know how you get on. I'm looking forward to hearing all about it.

Audio 7.2 The Olden Days

Dear Grandpa Bill,

How are you? I am well. Mummy says that perhaps you can help me do some school work. You see, our teacher, Mrs Steele, has told us to find out about the olden days; the 1960s. It's a project and we have to do some research for it, but we're not allowed to get all the information from the Internet. Mrs Steele says it's a good idea to ask someone who's really old, like you Grandpa. Mum says you were young in the 1960s. She says there was no Internet and no video games. So I'd like to know what you spent your time doing then. Can you remember not having a computer or an iPhone? How did you keep in touch with your friends?

I must go – Mummy's calling. I'm about to go to my swimming lesson ... I hate swimming!

When are you coming to visit us again?

Love and hugs

Freya XXX

Audio 7.3 The Olden Days

My dear Freya,

I'm very happy to help you with your project. You probably can't believe that I was ever young, but I really was a teenager once and the 1960s were a great time to be young. We teenagers wanted to change the world. We had more freedom and more money than our parents had had in the 40s and 50s. I remember thinking that my mum and dad were totally boring and old-fashioned. We were the kids of 'The swinging Sixties', London was the 'swinging city', and we weren't interested in listening to our parents' dreary music and we refused to follow their dreary fashions – we had trendy fashion boutiques! And, of course, I was lucky enough to be living in an even ‘cooler’ city than London – Liverpool! Home of the ‘Fab Four’ – the Beatles – and lots of other pop groups. Actually, between you and me, my favourites were the ‘Rolling Stones’ – I’m amazed to see that they are still going strong! Did you know that I met Grandma Linda at a Stones concert?

She was sixteen and wearing the shortest mini-skirt and long white boots. I couldn’t stop looking at her. She was gorgeous – she still is! I got her phone number and called her again and again, until she agreed to see me – no texting, no emailing. I wrote her a letter (yes, a letter!) in the end – she’s still got it I’m glad to say! Better than any text!

Freya – I hope this is useful.

Lots of love to all the family,

Grandpa XXX

Audio 7.4 Exclamations

- 1 A What a brilliant idea!
B Yes, if we rent a flat together we can share the costs.
- 2 A It’s so hot in here!
B I know, and I can’t open the window!
- 3 A He’s such a nice guy!
B Who? Tim? I think he’s boring.
- 4 A How stupid of me!
B Don’t tell me! You’ve lost your glasses again.
- 5 A It’s so very kind of you!
B Not at all. I’m always happy to help.
- 6 A Such badly-behaved children!
B I know – they’re completely out of control.
- 7 A We had such an awful time!
B Why? Was the weather bad?
- 8 A How absolutely disgusting!
B How do you know? You haven’t tasted it yet.

Audio 7.5 The worst exam ever!

- A Well, that was a complete disaster!
- B Why? What happened? Didn’t it go well?
- A Well?! I nearly walked out after five minutes. I couldn’t answer a single question. They were absolutely impossible.
- B How come? You worked so hard.
- A Well, none of the topics I’d revised came up.
- B Oh, that’s such bad luck!
- A I know. I managed to write something but I don’t think it was any good.
- B What a shame! But perhaps you’ve done better than you think. When’s your next exam?
- A Tomorrow! And I feel so tired and disappointed, I just can’t go home and start revising again.
- B Of course you can’t. Come out with me! I’m meeting the guys for a drink.
- A How nice! I’d love to, but I daren’t drink – not with an exam tomorrow. Anyway, you lucky things, you’ve finished your exams. I’ve still got one more.
- B OK – we’ve all had such a stressful week, we’ll celebrate big time when you finish!
- A I’ll look forward to that!

Unit 8

Audio 8.1 Will or going to

- 1 A Why are you wearing those old clothes?
B Because I’m going to paint the front door.
- 2 A I’ve got a headache. Have you got any paracetamol?
B Yes, they’re in the bathroom. I’ll get you some.
- 3 A Drive carefully! Let me know when you’re home.
B I’ll give you a ring as soon as I get home.
- 4 A Why are you making all those sandwiches?
B Because we’re going to have a picnic on the beach. Do you want to come?
A Yes! I’ll go and get my swimming costume and a towel.

Workbook Audioscript

- 5 A What's the plan? Are we going to eat out this evening?
B I don't think I feel like going out. I'll get a takeaway on the way home.
- 6 A Hey, when are you going to give me my electric drill back?
B Oh, sorry, I'd forgotten about it. I'll bring it round tomorrow.
- 7 A My new boyfriend's coming round for dinner tonight!
B Oooh! What are you going to cook?
A I'm going to make a curry. I'll let you know how it goes.
- 8 A Your exams are in two weeks' time. When are you going to start revising for them?
B It's OK. I've got a revision plan, and I'm going to do some tonight.
A But you said you were going out tonight.
B Oh, yeah... Erm, I'll start tomorrow night, then.

Audio 8.2 Can you keep a secret?

- A Can you keep a secret?
B Yes, of course. What is it?
A I'm organizing a surprise party for Bobbi's birthday next Sunday!
B How exciting! Where are you having it?
A In the garden at home.
B And who are you inviting?
A Friends and family – even her aunt and uncle from Scotland. They're driving down on Saturday and they're staying in a hotel so Bobbi won't know they're here.
B What about food? Where are you getting that from?
A It's all arranged. Marcello's restaurant are bringing all kinds of delicious things over on Sunday afternoon, and their chef is making a special birthday cake!
B Oh, so it really is a special birthday?
A Yes, it's her 40th. And she doesn't know yet, but the weekend after, we're flying first class to New York!

- B Fab! Am I invited to this party!
A Of course you are! But don't tell anyone!

Audio 8.3 Making arrangements

- 1 A Are you free on Friday evening?
B No, I'm having a meal with Helen on Friday.
- 2 A I was wondering if we could meet at 2.00 tomorrow?
B I'm afraid 2.00 won't work for me. How about 3.30?
- 3 A Maybe we could get together on Saturday afternoon?
B Sorry, the afternoon's no good for me.
- 4 A Why don't we have a coffee tomorrow morning?
B Good idea. Shall we say half ten?
- 5 A Let's go for a pizza after work.
B I'd love to, but I'm finishing work late today.
- 6 A Can you make a meeting at 4.30 tomorrow?
B Yes, 4.30 is fine. I'll see you then.

B No, I haven't.
A Well, I haven't spoken to him myself, but apparently he was caught cheating in his maths exam.
B No kidding! I just don't believe it! Does he have a problem with maths?
A No. Actually, maths is his best subject. He's brilliant at maths.
B Really? I didn't know that. So why would he cheat? He clearly doesn't need to.
A Exactly. And anyway, Sam's not the type to cheat. He would never do such a thing.

Workbook Audioscript

- B He must be very upset. Presumably he's going to complain.
- A Yes, he's seeing the principal this afternoon. Obviously, he's going to deny it completely.
- B Well, hopefully the principal will believe him. Let me know what happens.
- A I will. Personally, I think he'll be OK.
- B I hope you're right. Cheers. See you later.
- A Yeah. Fingers crossed for Sam.

Unit 11

- Kath's a highly educated woman. She's done an incredible amount of studying.

Audio 11.2 English proverbs

- A Eva has such a lovely, sweet face, but wow, she can be so unpleasant!
B Ah well, beauty is only skin deep sometimes.
- A Let's have a coffee and a chat before we get down to work on the report.
B No, come on, business before pleasure – we'll enjoy a coffee and chat more if we've got it done.
- A If you wrote a novel about a man posting himself to Australia, no-one would believe it.
B Yes, truth is stranger than fiction sometimes.
- A It was a lovely trip, but oh, it is nice to be back in our own house, isn't it?
B Mmm, home is where the heart is

- A Apparently those robbers got away with £100m worth of gold bullion.
B Wow! And they say that crime doesn't pay....
- A Woah! I can't believe it's already 6 o'clock. I thought it was about 4.00.
B Ah well, time flies when you're having fun.
- A Oh, stop it! That's too funny. I've got a chesty cough and it's hurting!
B Well, they say that laughter is the best medicine!
- A How long are you going to play that piece? It's driving me mad!
B I have to keep going. Practice makes perfect!
- A I was feeling so proud of myself skiing down that red slope, and then I went head over heels and slid down the rest of it!
B Ha! So it is true that pride comes before a fall.
- A Why can't Caroline see that Matt isn't serious about her? It's obvious he's just playing games with her.
B Love is blind. She either can't or doesn't want to see it.

b Level 3. Travel books, history, and café. Doors opening.

Unit 12

Audio 12.1 The holiday from hell!

D = Damian C = Carly

- D It's your fault that we went to the Bahamas. The honeymoon cost a fortune and it was the worst holiday I've ever had.
- C There's nothing wrong with the Bahamas. It's all the travel agent's fault. Their brochure promised a luxurious hotel and it was all lies. You can't blame me.
- D I'm sorry. I know it wasn't your fault. I won't email the agent. I'll speak to him in person.
- C You have to ask for our money back.

Audio 12.2 At the Travel Agent's

TA = Travel agent D = Damian

- TA Good morning, Mr Jones. How was your holiday?
- D It was a disaster! The information in your brochure and online was just a pack of lies.
- TA Oh dear! What went wrong?
- D Everything. First of all, why did your brochure say that the hotel was only twenty minutes from the airport? It took two hours! And it said that the hotel had recently been refurbished – not true – the hotel was a building site! You told us there were beautiful tropical gardens. Where? There was just one sad-looking plan tree and no miles of white sand.
- TA What about your room?
- D Ah, our room! The brochure said it would have a large balcony with ocean views. We had a view of a bulldozer and our bathroom was filthy. And we thought we would be served and looked after by a personal butler – where was he? We never saw him.

- TA And the activities?
- D Huh! You told us that we would be swimming with the dolphins, but the boat was broken – no boat, no dolphins, no scuba diving. And the food! You said we could eat the fresh local seafood, but Carly, my wife, got food poisoning. She told me to ask for our money back.
- TA I'm so sorry, Mr Jones. Let me see what I can do.

Audio 12.3 Getting a bank loan

BM = Bank manager LA = woman

- BM Good morning, Mrs Allan. Now, you want to borrow some money. How much do you want to borrow?
- LA Five thousand pounds.
- BM And why do you need it?
- LA Because we need to buy a new car.
- BM I see. Could you give me some personal details? What do you do for a living?
- LA I work for a large pharmaceutical company.
- BM I see. How much do you earn?
- LA Forty thousand pounds a year.
- BM And are you married?
- LA Yes, I am. I've been married for five years.
- BM Do you have any children?
- LA Yes, we have two, two boys.
- BM Fine. And you own your house, don't you? How long have you lived there?
- LA We've lived there for three years.
- BM OK, good. And finally when would you like the loan?
- LA We'd like it as soon as possible, actually.
- BM Well, as you know, times are hard at the moment, but let me see what we can do.

Workbook Audioscript

Audio 12.4 Phrasal verbs

A break-in

- A Someone broke into my flat last night.
B Oh, no! What was stolen? Did they get away with much?
A TV, my iPhone, and my laptop. I don't know how I'm going to get by without my phone.
B Did anyone see or hear anything?
A The alarm went off, but that didn't stop them.
B Did you call the police?
A Yes. They turned up about an hour later, but there was nothing really they could do.

At work

- A How's your job these days?
B To be honest, it's getting me down. I'm overworked. James left a few weeks ago, and I've ended up doing his job as well as mine.
A Don't you need more people?
B We took on more staff last month, but they're new. We'll just have to see how they get on.

A new home

- A Are you settling into your new flat?
B Yes. You must pop in for a coffee and a chat soon.
A I'd love to. Is there a lot to do to it?
B Oh, yes. We're doing it up room by room, so it's a bit of a mess. I'm looking forward to when it's all finished!
A Be patient! You'll get there.

Audio 12.5 Talking in clichés

- 1 A I was promoted after just one week in the job
B Ah, come on! I can't believe that. I wasn't born yesterday.
2 A You've brought a mac, an umbrella and boots!
 Clearly, you don't trust the weather forecast.
B You know me, better safe than sorry.
3 A He has good ideas, but sometimes he just gets carried away.
B Good job he's got you to help him keep both feet on the ground.

- 4 A I'm exhausted. We haven't stopped since this morning
B Yeah, let's call it a day and go to bed.
5 A Hi, everyone. I've some brought cakes for the meeting to keep us going.
B Me too! I just bought these cupcakes in the café! Great minds think alike!
6 A I only got a C in my maths A level exam and I wanted an A!
B Look, it's not the end of the world. You'll still get into university.
7 A I bet your dad was mad when you got home so late.
B I'll say he was. He went through the roof.
8 A I like my boss. He gives credit for good work.
B Yes, a boss like that always makes you want to go that extra mile.
9 A I hear you met Jenny's latest 'wonderful' boyfriend. What's he like?
B Mmmm – he's OK, but nothing to write home about.
10 A Well, my head's swimming. I didn't understand a word of that lecture.
B You can say that again. It was as clear as mud.

Audio 12.6 Meeting in the village

Dr = Doctor      MF = Mrs Finch

- Dr Good morning Mrs Finch!
MF Good morning doctor!
Dr I hear that Mr Finch had a fall. Can you tell me how he is?
MF Oh, he's a lot better Doctor.
Dr Oh good! But I can't remember exactly how it happened? Can you remind me?
MF Oh doctor, he fell off a ladder when he was repairing his shed. I told him not to do it, because he's not getting any younger, but he never listens to me.
Dr I'm not sure exactly how old he is.

Workbook Audioscript

MF He's in his late eighties, doctor, 87!

Dr Good heavens! Perhaps I can help. Do you want me to pop in and have a word with him. Perhaps I can persuade him to do less.

MF That would be great, doctor. I'd be very grateful.

Dr I know where you live. I'll see you this evening.
